

30th Anniversary Partnership Celebration

A series of one-day conferences are being held throughout 2014 to celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Brigham Young University-Public School Partnership. The two fall conferences will be jointly sponsored with the Wheatley Institution (wheatley.byu.edu).

THE
WHEATLEY INSTITUTION

LIFTING SOCIETY BY PRESERVING
AND STRENGTHENING ITS CORE INSTITUTIONS

CONFERENCE:

Civic Virtue, Civic Life

September 19, 2014

9:00 am to 12:00 noon

Varsity Theatre, Wilkinson Student Center, BYU

PRESENTERS:

Matthew Holland, President of Utah Valley University, former professor in the Department of Political Science at Brigham Young University.

Terrance Olson, Professor, Emeritus, School of Family Life at Brigham Young University.

Daniel Robinson, Distinguished Research Professor, Emeritus, Georgetown University and member of the philosophy faculty at Oxford University.

CONFERENCE:

Educating Citizens for a Life of Virtue and Purpose

October 30, 2014

12:30 pm to 3:30 pm

Auditorium, Harold B. Lee Library, BYU

PRESENTERS:

William Damon, professor of education at Stanford University, director of the Stanford Center on Adolescence, and senior fellow at the Hoover Institution.

David Mathews, president and chief executive officer of the Charles F. Kettering Foundation, former U.S. Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, and former president of The University of Alabama.

Stacie Molnar-Main, research deputy with the Kettering Foundation, supporting research on civic education.